Contributor License Agreement

Individual CLA with retrospective effect

Linked Data Benchmark Council

Software License Grant and Individual Contributor License Agreement ("Agreement")

Thank you for your contributions to the work of the Linked Data Benchmark Council ("LDBC"). In order to clarify the intellectual property license granted with Contributions from any person or entity, each Contributor must enter into a Contributor License Agreement (CLA) with LDBC. This license is for your protection as a Contributor as well as the protection of LDBC and its members and other contributors; it does not change your rights to use your own Contributions for any other purpose.

You accept and agree to the following terms and conditions for Your past, present and future Contributions submitted to LDBC. In return, LDBC shall not use Your Contributions in a way that is contrary to the public benefit or inconsistent with its nonprofit status and byelaws in effect at the time of the Contribution. Except for the license granted herein to LDBC and recipients of software, standards and other works distributed by LDBC, You reserve all right, title, and interest in and to Your Contributions.

1. Definitions.

"You" (or "Your") shall mean the copyright owner or legal entity authorized by the copyright owner that is making this Agreement with LDBC. For legal entities, the entity making a Contribution and all other entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with that entity are considered to be a single Contributor. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such entity, whether by contract or otherwise, or (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares, or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity.

"Contribution" shall mean any original work of authorship, including any modifications or additions to an existing work, that is or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement intentionally submitted by You to LDBC for inclusion in, or documentation of, any of the products, software, documentation, standards or test suites owned or managed by LDBC (the "Work"). For the purposes of this definition, "submitted" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to LDBC or its representatives, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, LDBC for the purpose of discussing and improving the Work, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by You as "Not a Contribution." "Code Contribution" means any Contribution to a Work in the form of software code.

2. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to LDBC and to recipients of software or other works distributed by LDBC a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable copyright license to reproduce, prepare derivative works of, publicly display, publicly perform, sublicense, and distribute Your Contributions and such derivative works.

3. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to LDBC and to recipients of software distributed by LDBC a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, no-charge, royalty-free, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent license to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, and otherwise transfer the Work, where such license applies only to those patent claims licensable by You that are necessarily infringed by Your Code Contribution(s) alone or by combination of Your Code Contribution(s) with the Work to which such Code Contribution(s) was submitted. If any entity institutes patent litigation against You or any other entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that your Code Contribution, or the Work to which you have contributed, constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to that entity under this Agreement for that Code Contribution or Work shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.
4. You represent that you are legally entitled to grant the above license. If your employer(s) has rights to intellectual property that you create that includes your Contributions, you represent that you have received permission to make Contributions on behalf of that employer, that your employer has waived such rights for your Contributions to LDBC, or that your employer has executed a separate Corporate CLA with LDBC.
5. You represent that each of Your Contributions is Your original creation (see section 7 for submissions on behalf of others).
6. You are not expected to provide support for Your Contributions, except to the extent You desire to provide support. You may provide support for free, for a fee, or not at all. Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, You provide Your Contributions on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.
7. Should You wish to submit work that is not Your original creation, You may submit it to LDBC separately from any Contribution, identifying the complete details of its source and of any license or other restriction (including, but not limited to, related patents, trademarks, and license agreements) of which you are personally aware, and conspicuously marking the work as "Submitted on behalf of a third-party: [named here]".
8. You agree to notify LDBC of any facts or circumstances of which you become aware that would make these representations inaccurate in any respect.

Note: This document is based on the Apache Individual CLA issued by the Apache Software Foundation. You can find a copy of the Apache License 2.0 at <https://www.apache.org/licenses/LICENSE-2.0>. It differs from the original ASF draft in that (1) LDBC replaces "the Foundation"; (2) it has retrospective effect by rendering contributions under its terms made prior to the date of the Agreement subject to the Agreement; (3) it introduces the concept of Code Contributions. Only Code Contributions are subject to the patent grant and retaliation provisions. To assist readers of this agreement, the text implementing (2) and (3) has been marked in bold, but this emphasis has no effect on interpretation.
